THE CHARLEROI MAIL

Entered second class mail at Charleroi, June 15, 1908, according to Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

VOL. X. NO. 114. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1909. One Cent

TRIENNIAL ASSESSMENT SHOWS GOOD INCREASE

Returns Being Made Today by Assessor Harvey Parsons.

$235,000 MORE THAN 1907

Report Shows That There is Substantial Yearly Growth.

A substantial increase in Charleroi over the triennial assessment of 1907 is shown in the report of the 1910 triennial, the returns of which are being made today at Washington by Assessor Harvey F. Parsons. Mr. Parsons has been working almost night and day the past week to get his returns prepared, completing them only this morning. This is the last day allowed for making the returns.

The increase over 1907 in the triennial assessment will probably reach $235,000. In round numbres the increase is reported to the Mail as $231,850.

The 1910 assessment, approximately, compared with that of 1907, follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Assessed value of real estate | $3,057,000 |
| " " " occupation | 240,000 |
| " " " horses... | 10,000 |
| " " " cows.... | 1,000 |
| Total assessed valuation.. | $3,308,000 |
| Valuation 1907 assessment | 3,066,150 |
| Increase over 1907..... | $231,850 |

Comparing the 1910 figures with the assessment of 1908, an increase of 158,540 is shown, approximately. The valuation in 1908 was $3,149,400. The valuation by the 1909 assessment was $3,183,085, thus showing an increase during the year of 124,915.

In the borough there were no heavy increases on any property, although there were some changes. There were some raises made for the purpose of adjustment, and for the purpose of affording opportunity for the reduction of the millage next year. For the same reason some property valuations were lowered. Last year the millage was raised two mills, one by the borough and one for the school.

In the town there is about 200 horses, with values ranging from $50 to $100 each. There are in the neighborhood of 35 cows, with the average value ranging from $30 to $50.

Monongahela Road Will be Extended

Head Officials Favor Project of Constructing More Railway Lines.

That the Monongahela railroad will be extended next year seems to be assured. Recently a number of persons interested in the coal lands lying beyond Martin Station, the present terminus, and in the direction of Ft. Marion, have been consulting with Col. J. M. Schoonmaker relative to the proposed route of the road. They accompanied a delegation of Morgantown business men who held a conference in Pittsburg recently with Colonel Schoonmaker on the same mission.

Cyrus Echard, returning from a visit to Colonel Schoonmaker recently, when asked what the result of his visit was said: "I am pretty sure that the road will be built to West Virginia. I was given every assurance of it."

OBSERVANCE OF NEW YEAR

Several Stores Will be Closed and Business will be Suspended.

NEVER MUCH OBSERVED

New Year's Day will be more generally observed Saturday, than it ever has as a holiday in the history of Charleroi. Many of the stores will be closed, and business will be suspended.

Previously, New Year's Day has not been so generally observed, but the change is for the fuller observance of the holiday, even though it does come so soon after Christmas. All the banks, the First National, the Bank of Charleroi and the Charleroi Savings and Trust company will be closed, and the larger stores, as well as some of the smaller ones. The Mail will not be issued on that day.

At the post office the day will be observed the same as other holidays. The office will be open in the morning until 9 o'clock, and one delivery will be made by the carriers over town. In the evening one collection will be made in the business section, and the office will be open from 6 until 7 o'clock.

The week following Christmas is usually a little slow, and the merchants who close on New Year's Day do not anticipate any apparent loss in trade from the result.

With New Year's Day generally regarded as a holiday there are five holidays observed in this section. These are New Year's, Decoration Day, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Other days that are observed by some are Lincoln's Birthday and Washington's Birthday. In other sections there are a number of other days observed.

The Charleroi schools will this year be closed on New Year's Day. The winter vacation extends until January 3, something unusual, school generally starting the week before January 1st.

PERSONS WITH AVERAGE PUBLIC SCHOOL EDUCATION WILL BE ABLE TO PASS TEST FOR ENUMERATORS

Examination for Applicants for Census Taking will not be as Severe as it was at First Thought.

LIST OF SUPERVISORS IN STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

By January 25 all applications for the positions of enumerators in the United State Census must be filed with the supervisors of census for the supervisors' districts in which the applicants reside. Between that date and February 5 the supervisors will send out cards to applicants informing them where they are to report for the "test" to be held in every one of the 330 supervisors' districts on February 5 only.

Census Director Durand states that persons desiring to hold such positions should not stand in fear of the "test" to be made. Any persons of average public school education who can write plainly and reasonably fast will go through the "test" with "colors flying." In fact, the "test" is intended simply to help the supervisors pick suitable persons and to enable the director of the census to exercise intelligently his power of approval of those whom the supervisors designate for appointment.

The following are the census supervisors for Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania—First district, N. B. Kelly, Philadephia; Second, Ellis C. Abrams, Moores, Deleware County; Third, A. Brock Shoemaker, Tullytown, Bucks County; Fourth, Milton S. Falck, Lancaster; Fifth, John R. Edwards, Scranton; Sixth John B. Graham, Ashley, Luzerne County; Seventh, Harry G. Seip, Easton; Eighth, Samuel L. Price, Ashland, Schuylkill County; Ninth, George G. Blumer, Allentown; Tenth, J. Andrew Wilt, Towanda; Eleventh, Augustus L. Merrill Lock Haven; Twelfth, Benjamin Apple, Sunbury; Thirteenth, George Joseph, Lewistown; Fourteenth, Warren G. Light, Lebanon; Fifteenth, Lewis C. Elliot, York; Sixteenth, Samuel L. Reed, Ebensburg, Cambria County; Seventeenth, Samuel R. Hamilton, Bradford, McKean County; Eighteenth, Jacob E. Wenk, Tionesta, Forest County; Nineteenth, William S. Nason, Erie; Twentieth, David E. Thompson, Blairsville; Twenty-first, Charles O. Frye, Charleroi; Twenty-second, Aaron F. Dickey, Somerset. In the Twenty-third district George W. Gerwig of Pittsburg will be appointed next Tuesday.

SCARLET FEVER EPIDEMIC RAGING

Seventeen Families Now Under Quarantine for the Disease.

Charleroi is troubled with a scarlet fever epidemic. At present there are 17 families under quarantine, for the disease, although only in 15 of these is the disease raging, the others just living out the time of quarantine.

The disease is mostly among the foreign population. There are only four American families afflicted now. The disease is not confined to only one section, but is scattered around all over town The foreign people are blamed for its spread, it being thought that some of them are trying to hide the disease and thus escape quarantine.

There are three cases of diphtheria in town. The meeting of the board of health will be held soon, when the regular report will be made by Health Officer Darby, to include this as well as other important information.

SCARLET FEVER IN ROSTRAVER TOWNSHIP

The scarlet fever situation in Rostraver township bordering Monessen, and extending to North Belle Vernon in Westmoreland county, has reached an alarming stage, according to figures given out by Health Officer A. L. Arner. Since November 22, 30 cases have come under official notice of Mr. Arner, and there were found in 20 families. At present several cases exist at Monessen, Pricedale, Gibsonton, and Belle Vernon and adjacent territory.

WILL BID THE OLD YEAR ADIEU

Young People of Lutheran Church Arrange Entertainment and Social.

There have been several parties arranged for the watching out of the old year tonight, but as far as is known only one church will specially observe the occasion. This will be Christ Lutheran church. The young people of this denomination have arranged a social and entertainment for the members as well as any persons else who cares to join with them in seeing 1909 vanish and 1910 appear.

The entertainment will consist of a varied program. There will be three dialogues, "Man and His Money," by Mrs. Otto Dorbitz, Misses Lulu Vetter and Susan Anthony, and Ralph Richards; "Behind the Times," Misses Ruth Heupel and Isabella Dorbitz, and "The Rival Orators," by Earl Coulter and Ralph Richards. There will be tableaus, one "The Courtship of 1909 and 1910." "Seeing Chicago Through a Megaphone" will be a feature. Refreshments will be served, and a general good time enjoyed. The affair will begin at 8 o'clock.

FRATERNITY HOLDS MID-WINTER DANCE

The Alpha Phi Beta fraternity, of Charleroi gave their mid-winter dance last evening at the Bank of Charleroi hall. On account of the weather and various other atractions the affair was not well attended, but those present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Jenkins' orchestra furnished the music. The hours were from 8 to 1. There were some guests from out-of-town. The patronesses were Mrs. Jesse K. Johnston, Mrs. C. W. Weltner, Mrs. H. J. Repman, Mrs. E. C. Niver, Mrs. J. B. Enos, Mrs. R. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. W. Jimeson, and Mrs. W. E. Potter.

Night School

You deserve success—Douglas Business College would be very glad to send you to one of the good positions for young men and women which they cannot fill—but you are not ready. A business education has brought success to thousands—it will do as much for you. Get ready—now. Just make the preparation—the position is sure. Six full months in Night School for $20, books free. 114tl

FIRST STEP IN COLLECTIONS OF TAX ON CORPORATIONS

T. L. Lewis Now Claims Majority

Starts Making Out His Report for the Annual Convention of Miners.

"My majority for re-election this year is twice as large as it was last year," said Thomas L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, when he returned to the headquarters of the organization in Indianapolis yesterday to begin writing his annual report to the National convention, which will open here on January 18.

The tellers of the vote of the individual unions also arrived and they will at once begin counting the ballots. Approximately 1,800 local unions voted and Mr. Lewis says he has returns from 756 of them, from which he is able to calculate that he has a majority of 38,000 votes over his opponent, William Green, of Coshocton, Ohio.

Lewis' majority over John H. Walker of Danville, Ill., in last year's election was 18,000

PLAN FOR CONVENTION

Epworth Leaguers Hold a Meeting to Work Out Preliminary Plans.

WILL MAKE IT BIG AFFAIR

Methods for the entertainment of delegates to the Washington County District Epworth League convention of the M. E. church to be held here next June, were discussed at a meeting of members of the local chapter last night. It is expected that there will be 125 or 150 delegates, this number to be entertained by the Epworth League in a way that will prevent any confusion. The town will be canvassed by workers, to ascertain the number of persons that different families will house.

It is planned to have the members of the Junior league, under the superintendent, Miss Florence Crill, constitute the reception committee. These will meet the various delegates at the car or train and conduct them to the church to be registered, and then to the places of their assignment. All departments of the church will have their share of work to do, and plans are to make the convention the best ever held by the Washington County District.

The minute details will be worked out later by the league cabinet, of which Edgar R. Abell is president, and Lambert Heaton, Miss Stella Glunt, Mrs. Maud Slaughter, Miss Vida Goehring, Miss Winifred Martin and Miss Myrtle Murray are vice presidents.

Notice

The Protected Home Circle will have a New Year's tree at the hall on Friday night, December 31, for members only. 111t2

Blanks Received by all Chartered Bodies of all Kinds in Charleroi.

STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS

Revenue Collector Must Know "As Much About the Business as Directors Themselves."

During the past week every chartered corporation in Charleroi, big or little, has received blanks from the U. S. Internal revenue collector at Pittsburg. This is the first step in the collection of the one per cent tax on corporations under act of Congress of August 5, and those who received these documents are at a loss what to do with them.

The law specifies that the blanks must be filled out and returned to the collector of revenue on or before March 1. They must contain a sworn statement showing the net receipts, net profits, etc., and cover every detail of the business operations of a concern, every source of income, every channel of expense, and the exact condition of the business at the end of the year. This must be sworn to by the president and treasurer of the company, and is given to the public as soon as it is received in Washington.

The corporations are divided into five classes. Class A covers the financial and commercial institutions, banks, banking associations, trust companies, guaranty and securety companies, title insurance companies, building associations, and insurance companies.

Class B covers public service, railroads, steamboats, ferryboats, stage lines, pipe lines, gas and electric light companies, express, transportation and storage companies, telegraph and telephone companies.

Class C covers industrial and manufacturing, mining, lumber, and coke companies; rolling mills, foundry and machine shops, sawmills, flour, woolen, cotton and other mills; manufacturers of cars, automobiles, elevators, agricultural implements and all articles manufactured from metal, wood or other material, manufacturers of sugar, molasses, sirups and ice, and slaughter houses, tannery, packing, or canning companies.

Class D covers coal, lumber, produce and all goods, wares and other merchandise.

Class E, includes architects, contrators, hotels, theatres and all companies or associations not otherwise classified.

Some of the questions are: The value of paid-up stock at the close of the year; total bonded or other indebtedness at close of year; gross income, an accounting that will show the difference between the price received for the goods when sold, and the cost of such goods as manufactured; total losses and depreciation of property; the total amount of interest and taxes paid, and the net income. A tax of one per cent is to be paid on the profits exceeding $5,000.

A Happy New Year

Today closes up the old year, and when the Mail appears again a new period of time will have been recorded. The past year has not been a record breaking period for Charleroi, neither does it mark any epoch that will stand out in relief in the annals of the community. It has marked a period of persistent and harmonious "plugging" on the part of the whole people who compose the town, and no person or group of persons have been prominent in any event or achievement that will mark an epoch in local history.

Although she has not created any stir to attract the attention of the outside world during the past year, Charleroi has made many moral and material gains during the past year. Those who have watched civic conditions will discover that the community was never more united on public questions, and fewer communities are freerer from factional elements or cliques than the Magic City. The town is essentially a community of "commoners." There is no great individual wealth here to create social divisions, and while the people divide into congenial groups in church and social work, they are all united in any project for the common good. Church and civic influences have achieved a distinct gain during the past year, while the educational spirit has also been more strikingly manifested.

With these conditions Charleroi is well equipped to start on a new year. The community as a whole is in good fighting trim to take advantage of anything that may turn up for the common good, and while every one has high hopes for the future, there are no regrets for the year just about to close.

St. Mary's Episcopal.

QUIETLY MARRIED AT BRIDE'S HOME

Miss Bertha Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ray of McKean avenue and Joseph Thompson, of Charleroi, were quietly married yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. L. W. Shey of St. Mary's Episcopal church, in the presence of the immediate families. After the wedding the couple left on a ten days' wedding trip to visit in various parts of Pennsylvania and other States.

Miss Ray is prominent in Episcopal church circles, and is well known in Charleroi. The groom is a well known young man. He is employed in the Charleroi Coal mines as a motorman and electrical engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will take up their residence on McKean avenue near Second street upon their return.

BLUE AND SCARLET ARRANGE RECEPTION

The Blue and the Scarlet Association, consisting of members of the Masonic fraternity of Charleroi, Monessen, Belle Vernon and other places, will tonight hold their second reception of the winter season at Turner Hall, Monessen. Dancing and cards will be the diversions, and refreshments will be served. For the affair, which promises to be a big social event, George's orchestra of Pittsburg has been secured. The committee in charge has made elaborate arrangements for the event.

No Issue of The Mail

Tomorrow, Saturday, being New Year's Day, and in accordance with the custom of afternoon papers, the Mail will not be issued.

Miss Grace Keech is entertaining her friends, Miss Bess Shaw of Kittanning and Misses Alice and Anna Fitzgerald of Pittsburg.

In addition to J. D. Berryman and John Steinbaugh, who joined a Pittsburg party yesterday for a trip to Cuba, was George W. Cooper of Fallowfield avenue.

Miss Mae Cardon of Clearfield is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jimeson of Fifth street and other friends in town.

Geo. L. Schuyler, Esq., has opened law offices in Pittsburg and moved his family there this week. Jas. Schnelbaugh has moved into the Schuyler residence on Lookout avenue.

Samuel Michener of Charleroi has been drawn to serve on the grand jury which meets on February 7.

Capt. W. A. Hoge and J. F. Laird have been drawn to serve on the petit jury for the February term of court.

Mrs. William Evans and daughter Miss Leona are spending the day in Pittsburg.

Postmaster J. E. McCardle is convalescing after a week's severe illness of the grip.

Rev. Shey at Uniontown.

Rev. L. W. Shey, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church of Charleroi, will go to Uniontown tonight to assist in holding a watch night service of the Episcopal churches and the First Presbyterian church of that place. He will be in charge of the services, and Rev. William Hamilton Spence, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Uniontown will deliver the New Year's sermon. A choir of 40 voices will render the music.

Sledding Party

A party of Charleroi people last evening went in two sleds to the home of V. D. Shannon, in Fallowfield township, where they were royally entertained during the evening. The first thing upon their arrival was an oyster supper, after which the floors were cleared for an old-fashioned dance, and euchre was enjoyed by those who did not care to dance. A fine time was enjoyed by the party which numbered about 30.

Miss Emma Jones of Ninth street is in Pittsburg today visiting friends.

Mrs. Mary Kent, and son Raymond, left this morning for Brisbin, where they will visit over Saturday and Sunday.

THE CHARLEROI MAIL

Entered second class mail at Charleroi, June 15, 1909, according to Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

VOL. X. NO. 114. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1909. One Cent

TRIENNIAL ASSESSMENT SHOWS GOOD INCREASE

Returns Being Made Today by Assessor Harvey Parsons.

$235,000 MORE THAN 1907

Report Shows That There is Substantial Yearly Growth.

A substantial increase in Charleroi over the triennial assessment of 1907 is shown in the report of the 1910 triennial, the returns of which are being made today at Washington by Assessor Harvey F. Parsons. Mr. Parsons has been working almost night and day the past week to get his returns prepared, completing them only this morning. This is the last day allowed for making the returns.

The increase over 1907 in the triennial assessment will probably reach $235,000. In round numbres the increase is reported to the Mail as $231,850.

The 1910 assessment, approximately, compared with that of 1907, follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Assessed value of real estate | $3,057,000 |
| " " " occupation | 240,000 |
| " " " horses... | 10,000 |
| " " " cows.... | 1,000 |
| Total assessed valuation.. | $3,308,000 |
| Valuation 1907 assessment | 3,066,150 |
| Increase over 1907..... | $231,850 |

Comparing the 1910 figures with the assessment of 1908, an increase of 158,540 is shown, approximately. The valuation in 1908 was $3,149,460. The valuation by the 1909 assessment was $3,183,935, thus showing an increase during the year of 124,915.

In the borough there were no heavy increases on any property, although there were some changes. There were some raises made for the purpose of adjustment, and for the purpose of affording opportunity for the reduction of the millage next year. For the same reason some property valuations were lowered. Last year the millage was raised two mills, one by the borough and one for the school.

In the town there is about 200 horses, with values ranging from $50 to $100 each. There are in the neighborhood of 35 cows, with the average value ranging from $30 to $50.

Head Officials Favor Project of Constructing More Railway Lines.

That the Monongahela railroad will [illegible] assured. Recently a number of persons interested in the coal lands lying beyond Martin Station, the present terminus, and in the direction of Pt. Marion, have been consulting with Col. J. M. Schoonmaker relative to the proposed route of the road. They accompanied a delegation of Morgantown business men who held a conference in Pittsburg recently with Colonel Schoonmaker on the same mission.

Cyrus Echard, returning from a visit to Colonel Schoonmaker recently, when asked what the result of his visit was said: "I am pretty sure that the road will be built to West Virginia. I was given every assurance of it."

OBSERVANCE OF NEW YEAR

Several Stores Will be Closed and Business will be Suspended.

NEVER MUCH OBSERVED

New Year's Day will be more generally observed Saturday, than it ever has as a holiday in the history of Charleroi. Many of the stores will be closed, and business will be suspended.

Previously, New Year's Day has not been so generally observed, but the change is for the fuller observance of the holiday, even though it does come so soon after Christmas. All the banks, the First National, the Bank of Charleroi and the Charleroi Savings and Trust company will be closed, and the larger stores, as well as some of the smaller ones. The Mail will not be issued on that day.

At the post office the day will be observed the same as other holidays. The office will be open in the morning until 9 o'clock, and one delivery will be made by the carriers over town. In the evening one collection will be made in the business section, and the office will be open from 6 until 7 o'clock.

The week following Christmas is usually a little slow, and the merchants who close on New Year's Day do not anticipate any apparent loss in trade from the result.

With New Year's Day generally regarded as a holiday there are five holidays observed in this section. These are New Year's, Decoration Day, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Other days that are observed by some are Lincoln's Birthday and Washington's Birthday. In other sections there are a number of other days observed.

The Charleroi schools will this year be closed on New Year's Day. The winter vacation extends until January 3, something unusual, school generally starting the week before January 1st.

PERSONS WITH AVERAGE PUBLIC SCHOOL EDUCATION WILL BE ABLE TO PASS TEST FOR ENUMERATORS

Examination for Applicants for Census Taking will not be as Severe as it was at First Thought.

LIST OF SUPERVISORS IN STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

By January 25 all applications for the positions of enumerators in the United State Census must be filed with the supervisors of census for the supervisors' districts in which the applicants reside. Between that date and February 5 the supervisors will send out cards to applicants informing them where they are to report for the "test" to be held in every one of the 330 supervisors' districts on February 5 only.

Census Director Durand states that persons desiring to hold such positions should not stand in fear of the "test" to be made. Any persons of average public school education who can write plainly and reasonably fast will go through the "test" with "colors flying." In fact, the "test" is intended simply to help the supervisors pick suitable persons and to enable the director of the census to exercise intelligently his power of approval of those whom the supervisors designate for appointment.

The following are the census supervisors for Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania—First district, N. B. Kelly, Philadephia; Second, Ellis C. Abrams, Moores, Deleware County; Third, A. Brock Shoemaker, Fairytown, Bucks County; Fourth, Milton S. Falck, Lancaster; Fifth, John R. Edwards, Scranton; Sixth John B. Graham, Ashley, Luzerne County; Seventh, Harry G. Seip, Easton; Eighth, Samuel L. Price, Ashland, Schuylkill County; Ninth, George G. Blumer, Allentown; Tenth, J. Andrew Wilt, Towanda; Eleventh, Augustus L. Merrill Lock Haven; Twelfth, Benjamin Apple, Sunbury; Thirteenth, George Joseph, Lewistown; Fourteenth, Warren G. Light, Lebanon; Fifteenth, Lewis C. Elliot, York; Sixteenth, Samuel L. Reed, Ebensburg, Cambria County; Seventeenth, Samuel R. Hamilton, Bradford, McKean County; Eighteenth, Jacob E. Wenk, Tionesta, Forest County; Nineteenth, William S. Nason, Erie; Twentieth, David E. Thompson, Blairsville; Twenty-first, Charles O. Frye, Charleroi; Twenty-second, Aaron F. Dickey, Somerset. In the Twenty-third district George W. Gerwig of Pittsburg will be appointed next Tuesday.

SCARLET FEVER EPIDEMIC RAGING

Seventeen Families Now Under Quarantine for the Disease.

Charleroi is troubled with a scarlet fever epidemic. At present there are 17 families under quarantine, for the disease, although only in 15 of these is the disease raging, the others just living out the time of quarantine.

The disease is mostly among the foreign population. There are only four American families afflicted now. The disease is not confined to only one section, but is scattered around all over town. The foreign people are blamed for its spread, it being thought that some of them are trying to hide the disease and thus escape quarantine.

There are three cases of diphtheria in town. The meeting of the board of health will be held soon, when the regular report will be made by Health Officer Darby, to include this as well as other important information.

SCARLET FEVER IN ROSTRAVER TOWNSHIP

The scarlet fever situation in Rostraver township bordering Monessen, and extending to North Belle Vernon in Westmoreland county, has reached an alarming stage, according to figures given out by Health Officer A. L. Arner. Since November 22, 30 cases have come under official notice of Mr. Arner, and there were found in 20 families. At present several cases exist at Monessen, Pricedale, Gibsonton, and Belle Vernon and adjacent territory.

WILL BID THE OLD YEAR ADIEU

Young People of Lutheran Church Arrange Entertainment and Social.

There have been several parties arranged for the watching out of the old year tonight, but as far as is known only one church will specially observe the occasion. This will be Christ Lutheran church. The young people of this denomination have arranged a social and entertainment for the members as well as any persons else who cares to join with them in seeing 1909 vanish and 1910 appear.

The entertainment will consist of a varied program. There will be three dialogues, "Man and His Money," by Mrs. Otto Dorbitz, Misses Lulu Vetter and Susan Anthony, and Ralph Richards; "Behind the Times," Misses Ruth Heupel and Isabella Dorbitz, and "The Rival Orators," by Earl Coulter and Ralph Richards. There will be tableaus, one "The Courtship of 1909 and 1910." "Seeing Chicago Through a Megaphone" will be a feature. Refreshments will be served, and a general good time enjoyed. The affair will begin at 8 o'clock.

FRATERNITY HOLDS MID-WINTER DANCE

The Alpha Phi Beta fraternity, of Charleroi gave their mid-winter dance last evening at the Bank of Charleroi hall. On account of the weather and various other atractions the affair was not well attended, but those present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Jenkins' orchestra furnished the music. The hours were from 8 to 1. There were some guests from out-of-town. The patronesses were Mrs. Jesse K. Johnston, Mrs. C. W. Weltner, Mrs. H. J. Repman, Mrs. E. C. Niver, Mrs, J. B. Enos, Mrs. R. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. W. Jimeson, and Mrs. W. E. Potter.

Night School

You deserve success—Douglas Business College would be very glad to send you to one of the good positions for young men and women which they cannot fill—but you are not ready. [illegible] cess to thousands—it will do as much for you. Get ready—now. Just make the preparation—the position is sure. Six full months in Night School for $20, books free. 114tl

FIRST STEP IN COLLECTIONS OF TAX ON CORPORATIONS

Blanks Received by all Chartered Bodies of all Kinds in Charleroi.

STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS

Revenue Collector Must Know "As Much About the Business as Directors Themselves."

During the past week every chartered corporation in Charleroi, big or little, has received blanks from the U. S. Internal revenue collector at Pittsburg. This is the first step in the collection of the one per cent tax on corporations under act of Congress of August 5, and those who received these documents are at a loss what to do with them.

The law specifies that the blanks must be filled out and returned to the collector of revenue on or before March 1. They must contain a sworn statement showing the net receipts, net profits, etc., and cover every detail of the business operations of a concern, every source of income, every channel of expense, and the exact condition of the business at the end of the year. This must be sworn to by the president and treasurer of the company, and is given to the public as soon as it is received in Washington.

The corporations are divided into five classes. Class A covers the financial and commercial institutions, banks, banking associations, trust companies, guaranty and securety companies, title insurance companies, building associations, and insurance companies.

Class B covers public service, railroads, steamboats, ferryboats, stage lines, pipe lines, gas and electric light companies, express, transportation and storage companies, telegraph and telephone companies.

Class C covers industrial and manufacturing, mining, lumber, and coke companies; rolling mills, foundry and machine shops, sawmills, flour, woolen, cotton and other mills; manufacturers of cars, automobiles, elevators, agricultural implements and all articles manufactured from metal, wood or other material, manufacturers of sugar, molasses, sirups and ice, and slaughter houses, tannery, packing, or canning companies.

Class D covers coal, lumber, produce and all goods, wares and other merchandise.

Class E includes architects, contrators, hotels, theatres and all companies or associations not otherwise classified.

Some of the questions are: The value of paid-up stock at the close of the year; total bonded or other indebtedness at close of year; gross income, an accounting that will show the difference between the price received for the goods when sold, and the cost of such goods as manufactured; total losses and depreciation of property; the total amount of interest and taxes paid, and the net income. A tax of one per cent is to be paid on the profits exceeding $5,000.

T. L. Lewis Now Claims Majority

Starts Making Out His Report for the Annual Convention of Miners.

"My majority for re-election this year is twice as large as it was last year," said Thomas L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, when he returned to the headquarters of the organization in Indianapolis yesterday to begin writing his annual report to the National convention, which will open here on January 18.

The tellers of the vote of the individual unions also arrived and they will at once begin counting the ballots. Approximately 1,600 local unions voted and Mr. Lewis says he has returns from 756 of them, from which he is able to calculate that he has a majority of 35,000 votes over his opponent, William Green, of Coshocton, Ohio.

Lewis' majority over John H. Walker of Danville, Ill., in last year's election was 18,000

PLAN FOR CONVENTION

Epworth Leaguers Hold a Meeting to Work Out Preliminary Plans.

WILL MAKE IT BIG AFFAIR

Methods for the entertainment of delegates to the Washington County District Epworth League convention of the M. E. church to be held here next June, were discussed at a meeting of members of the local chapter last night. It is expected that there will be 125 or 150 delegates, this number to be entertained by the Epworth League in a way that will prevent any confusion. The town will be canvassed by workers, to ascertain the number of persons that different families will house.

It is planned to have the members of the Junior league, under the superintendent, Miss Florence Crill, constitute the reception committee. These will meet the various delegates at the car or train and conduct them to the church to be registered, and then to the places of their assignment. All departments of the church will have their share of work to do, and plans are to make the convention the best ever held by the Washington County District.

The minute details will be worked out later by the league cabinet, of which Edgar R. Abell is president, and Lambert Heaton, Miss Stella Glunt, Mrs. Maud Slaughter, Miss Vida Goehring, Miss Winifred Martin and Miss Myrtle Murray are vice presidents.

Notice

The Protected Home Circle will have a New Year's tree at the hall on Friday night, December 31, for members only. 111t2

A Happy New Year

Today closes up the old year, and when the Mail appears again a new period of time will have been recorded. The past year has not been a record breaking period for Charleroi, neither does it mark any epoch that will stand out in relief in the annals of the community. It has marked a period of persistent and harmonious "plugging" on the part of the whole people who compose the town, and no person or group of persons have been prominent in any event or achievement that will mark an epoch in local history.

Although she has not created any stir to attract the attention of the outside world during the past year, Charleroi has made many moral and material gains during the past year. Those who have watched civic conditions will discover that the community was never more united on public questions, and few communities are freerer from factional elements or cliques than the Magic City. The town is essentially a community of "commoners." There is no great individual wealth here to create social divisions, and while the people divide into congenial groups in church and social work, they are all united in any project for the common good. Church and civic influences have achieved a distinct gain during the past year, while the educational spirit has also been more strikingly manifested.

With these conditions Charleroi is well equipped to start on a new year. The community as a whole is in good fighting trim to take advantage of anything that may turn up for the common good, and while every one has high hopes for the future, there are no regrets for the year just about to close.

St. Mary's Episcopal.

QUIETLY MARRIED AT BRIDE'S HOME

Miss Bertha Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ray of McKean avenue and Joseph Thompson, of Charleroi, were quietly married yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. L. W. Shey of St. Mary's Episcopal church, in the presence of the immediate families. After the wedding the couple left on a ten days' wedding trip to visit in various parts of Pennsylvania and other States.

Miss Ray is prominent in Episcopal church circles, and is well known in Charleroi. The groom is a well known young man. He is employed in the Charleroi Coal mines as a motorman and electrical engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will take up their residence on McKean avenue near Second street upon their return.

BLUE AND SCARLET

ARRANGE RECEPTION

The Blue and the Scarlet Association, consisting of members of the Masonic fraternity of Charleroi, Monessen, Belle Vernon and other places, will tonight hold their second reception of the winter season at Turner Hall, Monessen. Dancing and cards will be the diversions, and refreshments will be served. For the affair, which promises to be a big social event, Peorge's orchestra of Pittsburg has been secured. The committee in charge has made elaborate arrangements for the event.

No Issue of The Mail

Tomorrow, Saturday, being New Year's Day, and in accordance with the custom of afternoon papers, the Mail will not be issued.

Miss Grace Keech is entertaining her friends, Miss Bess Shaw of Kittanning and Misses Alice and Anna Fitzgerald of Pittsburg.

In addition to J. D. Berryman and John Steinbaugh, who joined a Pittsburg party yesterday for a trip to Cuba, was George W. Cooper of Fallowfield avenue.

Miss Mae Cardon of Clearfield is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jimeson of Fifth street and other friends in town.

Geo. L. Schuyler, Esq., has opened law offices in Pittsburg and moved his family there this week. Jas. Schnelbaugh has moved into the Schuyler residence on Lookout avenue.

Samuel Michener of Charleroi has been drawn to serve on the grand jury which meets on February 7.

Capt. W. A. Hoge and J. F. Laird have been drawn to serve on the petit jury for the February term of court.

Mrs. William Evans and daughter Miss Leona are spending the day in Pittsburg.

Postmaster J. E. McCardle is convalescing after a week's severe illness of the grip.

Rev. Shey at Uniontown.

Rev. L. W. Shey, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church of Charleroi, will go to Uniontown tonight to assist in holding a watch night service of the Episcopal churches and the First Presbyterian church of that place. He will be in charge of the services, and Rev. William Hamilton Spence, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Uniontown will deliver the New Year's sermon. A choir of 40 voices will render the music.

Sledding Party

A party of Charleroi people last [illegible] to the home of V. D. Shannon, in Fallowfield township, where they were royally entertained during the evening. The first thing upon their arrival was an oyster supper, after which the floors were cleared for an old-fashioned dance, and euchre was enjoyed by those who did not care to dance. A fine time was enjoyed by the party which numbered about 30.

Miss Emma Jones of Ninth street is in Pittsburg today visiting friends.

Mrs. Mary Kent, and son Raymond, left this morning for Brisbin, where they will visit over Saturday and Sunday.
